OPTIVIOR TO ATTEND ENTERPRISE CONNECT

Annapolis Junction, MD – Optivior Technologies, LLC, will be attending, presenting and exhibiting at Enterprise Connect. Taking place March 17-20, 2014 at the Gaylord Palms Convention Center in Orlando, Florida, Enterprise Connect is the industry’s premier event focusing on systems, software, services, applications for enterprise communications and collaboration.

Dearest E. Chandler, Optivior’s Managing Director commented, “Optivior is attending Enterprise Connect, as the result of its expanded offerings and growing client base. We are pleased to be participating with so many of our flagship product partners.” Optivior will be at Booth #126, and will be holding client executive briefings and meetings throughout the event. “This event has the attention of many of our customers and manufacturers. Customers will be able to gain access to large amounts of information and accelerate their decision-making. Our partnership with this event continues to grow,” added Chandler.

About Enterprise Connect:

Enterprise Connect presents the leading market and thought leaders, comprehensive analysis, in-depth technical sessions and the largest and broadest exhibition in the country.

Everything at the event is focused on one over-riding goal: To help organizations make the best decisions possible about migrating, designing and implementing the right communications and collaboration products, services, software and architecture for their enterprise.
