Optivor makes BBJ's "Fast 50"

Annapolis Junction, MD August 15, 2018—The Baltimore Business Journal (BBJ) has listed Optivor Technologies among its "Fast 50." Annually, the BBJ ranks the area's fastest-growing private companies based on revenue growth over a 3-year span.

On October 11, 2018, an event will be held to honor the and award the companies. All 50 will be recognized from the stage, with the Top 10 invited to the stage to accept their award.

Stuart Chandler, Optivor's President & CEO stated: "We are honored to make the list. It is the result of an exceptional team and hard work. Our focus on quality, competency and responsiveness has been paying off, and this recognition validates that commitment. We are thankful to our customers, team members and stakeholders."

Since 2001, Optivor has delivered more than 10,000 IT solutions. The combined resources of Optivor and ACS is compelling for our clients. Optivor operates in federal and commercial markets, while ACS supports commercial markets. Our customers represent mid-to-large organizations and global brands.

In June, 2017, Optivor finalized the acquisition of Advanced Communications Solutions ("ACS"). Headquartered in Florida, ACS is among the nation's top NEC resellers. Together, Optivor and ACS represent one of the largest independently-owned telecommunications resellers in the United States.

Chandler added, "Optivor's Strategic Programs Office (SPO) has been focused on future growth strategies. We are presently positioned to win several large multi-year programs with the federal government."
