Avaya names Optivor Federal Partner of the Year

Annapolis Junction, MD, March 18, 2021— Optivor Technologies announced that it has been named Avaya’s Federal Service Partner of the Year for being a long-term, strategic partner in the federal government market and delivering consistent, top-tier results with a commitment to the Avaya brand and an aggressive approach to pursuing new business.

Upon receiving this award, Stuart Chandler, Optivor’s President and CEO stated, “We are extremely honored to be named Federal Service Partner of the Year. This award affirms our long-standing commitment to Avaya. I thank all of our Optivor team members and our customers who are the keys to our success”.

“We have a deep commitment to our partner ecosystem and their success, and we are pleased to recognize the efforts and achievements of our outstanding partners” said Frank Ciccone, Avaya’s North American SVP of Sales. “We congratulate all of our award-winning partners for their success in enabling the digital transformation of their clients, and we look forward to continued, successful partnerships in driving further engagement with our customers and enabling their journey to the benefits of cloud communications and collaboration.”
