OPTIVOR MAKES BBJ'S "FAST 50"

Annapolis Junction, MD – Annually, the BBJ ranks the area's fastest-growing private companies based on revenue growth over a 3-year span. The Baltimore Business Journal (BBJ) has listed Optivor Technologies among its "Fast 50."

An event will be held to honor and award the companies. All 50 will be recognized from the stage, with the Top 10 invited to the stage to accept their award. Stuart Chandler, Optivor's President & CEO stated: "Given Covid issues, we are especially pleased to make the list. Every day, we go to work, and we focus on customer challenges. Making the BBJ list is the result of an exceptional team and hard work. Our focus on quality, competency and responsiveness has been paying off, and this recognition validates that commitment. We are thankful to our customers, team members and stakeholders."

Since 2001, Optivor has delivered more than 18,000 IT solutions, and has employees throughout the U.S. Optivor operates in federal and commercial markets. Our customers represent mid-to-large organizations and global brands. Optivor is among the nation's top Avaya and top NEC resellers. Together it is one of the largest independently owned telecommunications resellers in the United States.

Chandler added, "Optivor's Strategic Programs Office (SPO) has been focused on future growth strategies. We have secured large Federal contracting vehicles and are presently positioned to win more multi-year programs with the federal government."
